

ASSASSINS: TP EDITION

Welcome to Assassins: TP Edition! Your mission should you choose to accept...more accurately, that you have already accepted...is as follows!

HOW TO PLAY

- ✦ Your first target will be sent to you at 10:00PM tonight.
- ✦ Your mission is to track that person down and "assassinate" them by hitting them with a roll of toilet paper.
- ✦ Once you have taken them out you must do two things. First, acquire their target. Second, message Meredith on Facebook messenger or text (see number below) that you: 1. Assassinated your target and 2. Who your next target is.
- ✦ Next repeat the process! Last man standing wins!
- ✦ Remember, someone has you as a target too, so be on alert!

Good luck assassins!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Are there any safe zones/times?

Yes! If you are at work you are safe. Going and leaving you are fair game. There are no safe times.

Is there a time limit on targets? Like you have 24 or 48 hrs after receiving each assignment or something like that? Or would it be a free for all until the last person is left standing? There is no time limit on targets although please don't hold up the game too long. The end time for the over all game is next Tuesday at 7PM.

Are there any rules surrounding the assassinations such as a grace period or the need for witnesses? The only rules for assassinations are that you must wear a mask, stay 6ft away, and directly hit them with the TP.

Is there going to be an official countdown of how many people are left? Yes! Check out our instagram for a running update.

Are shields allowed? Yes! You can block, dodge, or run away!

Do I have to use a TP roll? Yes, but you can use the same one multiple times.
